

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Introduction

The following procedures have been set in place following guidance from the Department for Education "School Complaints Procedure". Reference to this document (held by the Head's PA) may offer further or more detailed guidance on these procedures. The purpose is to provide information to parents, staff and governors on the procedures for dealing with complaints against the school. It identifies different types of complaints and the ways in which they should be addressed.

The guiding principles are that this Complaints Procedure will encourage the resolution of problems by informal means wherever possible;

- be easily accessible and publicised, simple to understand and use;
- be impartial and non-adversarial;
- allow swift handling within established time limits, keeping people
- informed of progress;
- be fair and consistent, addressing all points at issue;
- within the stated processes of the procedure, respect people's desire for confidentiality;
- provide an effective and adequate response to the complainant which will aim to establish positive relations and trust for the future;
- provide information to the school's Senior Team so that processes and procedures can be improved where relevant.

Different Types of Complaint

It is hoped that causes for complaint will be few and most can be dealt with as questions or concerns (Informal Complaints) through the normal day-to-day contact with the school. Staff will always be happy to see parents by appointment to discuss concerns at the earliest mutually convenient opportunity. If such a complaint cannot be resolved informally by the member of staff, it will be referred through the line management structure.

Where the approach is unsuccessful, Formal Complaints should be submitted in writing, usually to the Headteacher. However, it is important to establish early on the precise nature of a complaint as there are certain types of complaints or statutory requirements that should be addressed and processed through other routes. These include:

- Complaints concerning the Headteacher – contact the Chair of Governors at the school address;
- If the complaint is related to one of the following categories, it should be referred to the LA by the Headteacher to the relevant officer:
 - a. complaints about the curriculum, in all its facets
 - b. complaints about admissions
 - c. complaints about failure to assess a child's special educational needs
 - d. the exclusion of pupils from school
 - e. child protection – referral to LA should be without delay

THE PROCESSES FOR SUBMITTING AND DEALING WITH COMPLAINTS

General

Other than those identified above, complaints should initially be referred to an appropriate member of staff at the school. Complaints received directly by Governors or the LA that should be dealt with at school level will be redirected and handled in accordance with this procedure. The school shall keep records of complaints received, which should include how they have been processed and resolved.

Stage 1 - Informal complaints

The school shall always, where it is appropriate, encourage the informal resolution of concerns or complaints. A complaint at this stage may be verbal or written. In the case of parents with informal complaints the routes should be:

- Pastoral Matters – contact the tutor, House Coordinator or Head of Learning.
- Academic Matters – contact the relevant subject teacher or Head of Faculty.

Members of the public with a complaint should contact the Headteacher or his PA. In many cases the member of staff will be able to respond and resolve the issue immediately. The complainant should be contacted within two working days to initially acknowledge the receipt of the complaint, explain the next appropriate steps and agree the next contact point. The complainant should expect a more detailed response within four working days. Where the matter cannot be resolved informally by the member of staff, or where a concern is considered to be of a more serious nature, it may, by agreement between the member of staff and the complainant, be referred for discussion with the Headteacher.

Stage 2 – Formal Complaints

If the complainant is not satisfied with the response of the member of staff or the Headteacher, then they may wish to put their concerns in writing as a formal complaint. The letter, normally addressed to the Headteacher, or where it concerns the Headteacher to the Chair of Governors, should state clearly the nature and facts of the complaint and with whom it has previously been raised. A Complaints Form is available from the Headteacher's PA for this purpose, which has the benefit of ensuring that all the relevant information is submitted and recorded. The Headteacher will acknowledge the letter/form within four working days, indicating who will be investigating it, if not himself, and of the time-scales involved. The investigation shall gather information available from relevant sources to allow a fair conclusion to be made. This may involve interviewing and taking statements and meeting with the complainant for a further discussion. The Headteacher shall notify the complainant of his conclusions, normally within ten school days of the acknowledgement. This shall be done in writing and if the complaint is upheld, should include an apology and details of what measures the school will be taking to avoid a reoccurrence.

Stage 3 – Governors Appeal Panel

In the unlikely event that the complainant is still dissatisfied with the response to a formal complaint, they should write a letter of appeal to the Chair of Governors at the school address. An independent panel of three governors shall be formed to meet within fifteen school days of receiving the appeal. The panel will not normally include the Chair and will not include any governor with prior knowledge or involvement in the complaint. The panel shall conduct itself in accordance with guidelines provided by the DoE. The clerk to the panel shall write to the complainant, normally allowing five days' notice of the meeting, and inform them of their rights to submit further written evidence, to attend and to be accompanied. The Headteacher and other witnesses shall be invited to attend. The Headteacher shall submit a written report and may invite the Chair of Governors or members of staff directly involved to respond in writing and/or in person to the complaint. Information shall be distributed to all relevant parties prior to the meeting, allowing sufficient time for the contents to be reviewed. At the conclusion of the representations and questions, the panel will consider the issues and write to both parties with their decision or judgement within three days. This is normally the last and final step in the procedure. However, complainants have a right of appeal to the LA, who will only act if they consider that the Governing Body has acted unreasonably or not dealt with the case fairly and according to the Governors' agreed policy and practice.

Complaints may be of different degrees of concern. Colleagues should exercise judgement in each case as to the next course of action. If in doubt, colleagues should consult with their line manager.
